

Table with columns for student ID, name, department, and exam scores. The table is split into two main sections, each containing a list of students and their corresponding scores across various exam categories.